This study aims to prove that the dispute between the particles similar in the branches of the law is different for the ills of the underlying may deny similarities apparent between these particles, but when you search the ills of the provisions of the issues shows that the likeness is located is almost my pictures is not significant and therefore different provisions of these issues.

The study has addressed this issue through a two-fold:

The first part: It offered the theoretical background of the doctrinal differences which became later note existed and showed its inception and controls and ribbons to distinguish between issues.

The second part: The extracted issues which fulfills the conditions of the doctrinal differences that previously established and Developed to search the comparative statement of maturity difference or not.

The study concluded to a number of conclusions and recommendations, which confirmed on content, Detectives, that was the most important