Abstract in English:

Study Problem

The human element represented in human Houalemqsd real development in all areas but because of developments life has emerged on the world variables imposed raised Krh technological and cognitive and communications revolution, which coincides with the increasing negative consequences that affect all aspects of our lives humanity, especially the increase in the severity of the conflict and Altnahrbin States and increase the violations of human rights.

So the need arise because of covenants that govern the conflict the United Nations has placed first Charter in this regard in 1945.
The correlation with the presence of international covenants and a specialized entities translate those covenants reality, and that Egypt was not immune to what happens in the international arena of defense rights have been violated, which led to the establishment of the National Council for Human Rights to defend human rights in Egypt.

And then The Council shall perform their duties, but faced difficulties affecting achieve its objectives, which have targeted study to see the difficulties facing the Council to determine how to face the future and determine the pros for their support and then help him achieve his goals.

And thus highlight the key issue of the study:

Calendar of the National Council for Human Rights in the Arab Republic of Egypt from the perspective of the organization of society.

Objectives of the study:

Main objective of the study: evaluate the National Council for Human Rights from community organization perspective .

And emerges from the primary goal the following objectives: -

1 - the goal of efficient: Identify the efficiency of services provided by the National Council for Human Rights from the point of view of officials who provide the service.

2 - the goal of efficiency: Identify the effectiveness of the services provided by the National Council for Human Rights from the point of view of the beneficiaries.

3 - try out to determind model from community organization perspective . to strengthen the Council to achieve its goals.

Questions of the study:

President question: How efficient and effective is the National Council for Human Rights in achieving his goals to Arab republic of Egypt .

The first sub-question on efficiency: How efficient performance of the officials who provide services of the National Council of Human Rights?

- Verifiable indicators: the second dimension indicators for the efficient functioning of council officials.
Second sub-question on effectiveness: How effective services offered by the National Council for Human Rights from the point of view of the beneficiaries?

- Verifiable indicators: indicators to identify the effectiveness of services from the point of view of the beneficiaries.

The third sub-question: What the proposed model from the perspective of the organization of society, who can pull it out of the study to strengthen the committees of the Council to achieve its goals?

Concepts of the study:

The method used: This study belongs to that calendar studies aimed at evaluating activity or project or program for a particular unit.

Study tools: It is divided into:
The first side: data collection tools
A - documents and records:
B - questionnaires concerning efficient and effective.
- Form related specialists who provide services to the Council.
- Form relating to the beneficiaries of council services.

The second side: data analysis tools and INCLUDE:
1. content analysis.
2. quantitative analysis tools: Transactions statistical data analysis:
   INCLUDE:
   • use the program Excel: to enter data into the computer.
   • Identify all responses and assembled and then select Account Total kidney computerized.
   • coefficient Ka 2 (Ch Square Test). Correlation coefficients for Karl Pearson.
   • repetition. Percentage. Standard deviation.

fields of study
1. spatial domain: the National Council for Human Rights in the Arab Republic of Egypt
2. the temporal domain: the time on all study procedures.
3. the human sphere:
   Human field for the form of a questionnaire relating specialists Council:
   Form has been applied on a total sample of 70 Single of the Council.
   Field of human form for services relating to the beneficiaries of the council:
   The number of beneficiaries have been identified, according to the latest report of the Council was numbered 12729 and has been applied on a sample form and according equation Cochran has reached 128 Single-strong beneficiaries of council services

The most important results of the study
1 - For the answer to the first question: Evaluation of the National Council for Human Rights.
There determinants affect the work of the Council and by addressing it behooves us to define what
- There are several inputs affect the work of the Council and is in the policies and plans that regulate the work of the professionals and bring them to services, including interconnected possibilities and resources including physical, financial, human resources, which interfere with each other.
- Through those policies, plans and resources the Council to provide services by a process or system interconnected to provide those services.
- Results from that process correlated output which is to satisfy the needs of the beneficiaries of the services of the Council, which is represented in helping them to solve their problems and then achieve the goals of the Council for the long-term objectives set out in the action plan that actually applied.
- There are several considerations were taken into account when developing a plan human rights in Musrmenha:
  • Coordination with the state institutions concerned with human rights.
  • contribute to the protection of the rights of Egyptians inside
  • take into account the social dimension of the beneficiaries of the service of the Council
And that the beneficiary of the most important categories of council services, which were targeted by the plan:
  • human rights organizations.
  • elderly.
  • class childhood.
That there are institutions cooperate with the Council:
  • international bodies.
  • civil Jmmaaat.
That there were material support to implement the plan human rights in Musrmenha:
  • The presence of foreign bodies to finance the activities of the Council.
  • The existence of a self-financing resources council.
There are technical Massadrlda'm to help achieve the goals including:
  • sessions of the Human Rights Council.
  • The existence of a database and information on human rights.
  • Hold meetings with Alkmt_khaschin to discuss the continuous improvement of the service rendered.

- constant follow-up measures to solve the problem of the beneficiary. That there is a source of human support to help achieve the goals including:
  - train employees on teamwork.
- rehabilitation service providers to improve their performance style. There are ways assisted by the Council to raise awareness of human rights, including:
  - readable media.
  - Audio media.

That there are social problems addressed by the council specialists including:
- a problem with wasting the citizen's right to housing is not appropriate and Giralsahy in which they live
- wasting the citizen's right to health care.

That there are economic problems addressed by the Council of specialists, including:
- problems related to installing temporary employment.
- problems related to youth unemployment.

That there are problems addressed by political and civil specialists Council, including:
- problems associated with access to citizenship to children of foreign wives.
- wasted right electoral nominating local councils and parliamentary elections.

That there are problems related to international migrants abroad, including:
- related problem of wasting the right of the citizen immigrant safe to travel between countries.
- a problem with wasting my right as an immigrant from the freedom of movement and travel and return.

That there is a service to educate the council, including:
- Provide periodic reports on the activities of the Council to the beneficiary.
- implementation of training courses for beneficiaries to make them aware of their rights and needs.

There are specialized cognitive skills gained from introducing the service, including:
- skill of inventory facts about the client's problem.
- employ skill values of respect for human dignity and acceptance as an entrepreneur problem.

There affective skills gained from introducing the specialist service.
including:
• skill psychological aid to the beneficiary and learn his views to resolve the problem as the beneficiary.
• assist beneficiary skill to express his feelings.
There are specialized operational skills gained from introducing the service, including:
• work with the team skill.
• skill to convert the cases to various destinations.
The answer to the first sub-question:
For the possibilities that helped the Council to achieve its goals:
Including human possibilities:
• The existence of specialized trainers for training in human rights.
• The existence of specialized technicians to coordinate procedures for the provision of services to beneficiaries.
There are possibilities of material including:
1 - The existence devices sufficient Tknuaugeh: computers, landline, fax machines.
2 - The presence of adequate furniture.
There are scientific capabilities, including:
• Availability of researchers who prepare research and scientific studies to improve the service.
• the availability of scientific courses for specialists to provide better services to the beneficiaries of council services.
There is potential financial
• funded financial resources from abroad.
• Self resources within the Council.
There are possibilities of administrative
• availability departments and places allocated to receive beneficiaries.
• administrative Tuaralamt_khaschin who are to perform the service in time for assistance
There are tools helped the Council to achieve its objectives, including:
• forums convened by the Council for Human Rights.
• educational and training courses for Human Rights, convened by the Council.
• meetings to put out the agendas of the Council.
For constraints:
There are obstacles facing the work of the Council is determined as follows:
- Funding:
The difficulty of coordination procedures with the government to finance the activities of the Council.
The adequacy of government funding allocated to the activities of the Council.
- Technical:
  Lack of time allotted to provide the service.

To answer the second sub-question "the beneficiaries"
That there are reasons to direct beneficiaries for the services of the Council, including:
• The existence of problems solved is the competence of the Council.
• that the Council helps anyone who has a problem.
And more services provided to solve the problems caused by the waste of social rights:
• the provision of health care services.
• Get a healthy housing appropriately.
And more services provided by the Council to solve the problems resulting from wasting economic rights, including:
• To contribute to solve the problems associated with access to social security pension.
• To contribute to solve the problems associated with low income workers.
And more services provided by the Council to solve the problems resulting from the wasting of political rights, including:
• inform the families of the arrested news of the arrest.
• protect citizens from arbitrary arrest.
• Contribute to ensure the right to fair trials.
And more council services to solve the problems resulting from the wasting of the rights of migrants abroad, including:
• contribute to solving the problem of immigrant citizens in the safe movement between states.
• Service to resolve a problem with a migrant squandering the right of citizens to peaceful coexistence with foreigners
And more preventive educational council services including:
• Council provides consulting needed by the beneficiary.
• Council provides guidance services to other institutions that can take advantage of them.
Ph.D. thesis entitled introduction

Evaluate the Human rights council in Arab Republic of Egypt from community organization perspective

The preparation of the study

Amira Mahmoud Mohamed el-melayati,

Supervision

Prof. Dr. / Salem-sdek Ahmed
Professor of case work

Prof. Dr. / Mustafa el- Huseiny el- Najjar
Professor of case work

1434 AH - 2013 AD