Summary of the study in English

Problem of the study:-

The spread of cancer in recent times and the diversity of age groups that catch it and increase the problems resulting from the injury suffered by the cancer patient and his family led to a need for the attention of patients and their families in the current changes, which dominates the communities and go to meet human needs, especially the right to care to cope with the disease and the problems left by both at the level of the individual, family or community, which in turn led to an inevitable role played by social service in alleviating these problems, and includes entrance theoretical study group of Arab Studies and Foreign that are relevant to the present study the study that will help in determining the idea of study and of identifying social problems for the families of sick children brain cancer. In light of the above theory of data and the results of previous studies to crystallize the problem of the current study to answer the main question is:

"What is the efficiency and effectiveness of rehabilitation programs based on the community provided for the mentally handicapped who are the training within their community?" And can discuss this issue by addressing some of the issues the following subparagraph.
Summary of the study in English

importance of the study: -

1- Taking a class distinct from the other set of qualities and the most important of which is the existence of the nature of the individual to the disease and the resulting associated disabilities,

2- Problems experienced by the sick child and his family as a result of this disease

3- The Social Service's role in dealing with the families of children with brain cancer patients within the medical staff in hospitals tumors in general and children in particular tumors

4- What progress of the theory of data and the results of previous studies unique to the current study identifying problem: "the social problems of the families of the children of brain cancer patients" the Aims of the study:

This study aims to achieve the goal of a key to the effect"

The branch of this target group of the following objectives:

1- Determine the disruption of social relations problems for the families of children patients with brain cancer.
Summary of the study in English

2- Identify the problems of weak social participation for the families of children patients with brain cancer.

3- Identify the problems of neglect of social responsibilities to the families of children patients with brain cancer.

Question of the study:

The current study seeks to answer a key question to the effect:

What social problems for the families of sick children brain cancer?

And realized the answer to this question through the main answer to the following sub-questions: -

1- What disorder problems of social relations in families of children patients with brain cancer?

2- What social problems of lack of participation in families of children patients with brain cancer?

3- What are the problems of social neglect of social responsibilities in families of children patients with brain cancer?

The concepts of the study: -

1 - social problems.

2 - The concept of brain cancer
Summary of the study in English

The type of study: -

This study belongs to a pattern of descriptive studies.

The method used: -

This study relied on the comprehensive social survey method as it is the most appropriate way for this study.

Tools of the study: -

1 - the identification of social problems for the families of children patients with brain cancer.

2 - Guide interview with expert practitioners of social workers working at the National Cancer Institute in Cairo.

Fields of study: -

– Broadcast: -

1- Place:

National Cancer Institute in Cairo, which is the scientific and medical institute, which includes all disciplines of oncology, has been selected this place for the following reasons:

1- Frequency of large numbers of children's brain cancer patients provides the sample required to conduct the study.
Summary of the study in English

2- Ready Management Institute and social workers working for cooperation with the Institute study.

3- It is the Scientific Institute specialist in oncology at the level of the Republic so far.

2- The human sphere:

The field consists of the human to the study of families of children brain cancer patients and their number (70) and family, which represents the total households calling at the Institute for sons, received medical treatment during the study period.

3- Temporal field:-

The period included the collection and analysis of data from 10/29/2012 and ended on 29/4/2013.

Results of the study: -

The study found a range of important results and answer questions about the study and the achievement of its objectives:-

1- That the families of sick children suffering from brain cancer disorder problems of social relations they have with regard to spouse or children or relatives and those around

2- The families of the children of brain cancer patients suffer from the problems of weak Social Participation
Summary of the study in English

degree vary from family to another depending on many conditions

3- The families of the children of brain cancer patients suffer from the problems of neglect and social responsibilities that carry a partner's mobilized responsibility and which is often the mother is that partner.

4- As for the obstacles and problems faced by the social workers were relatively few and mostly focused on the problems of funding, lack of community awareness of the importance of the role of the social worker and the lack of a suitable place to meet with clients, and increase the number of beneficiaries, which reduces the yield of the service and increases Amishqtha.