First, the problem of the study:

The history of effective intervention with the mentally handicapped to experience the world the French "Itard" with child "Aveyron" and to studies of the University of "Iowa" in the thirties where aspiration of researchers in the field of early intervention to develop the capacity and skills of the disabled child mentally by the presence of a rich environment interact with him properly.

Although mental health problems experienced by children with Down syndrome, but he educated active if early intervention with him because creating an exciting environment for the child to help him adapt to the social and learning process.

Where is the Down Syndrome Down Syndrome and formerly known Mongolian Mongolism, the most popular types of intellectual disabilities and the most widespread, and the most influential developmental disorders in the key areas of functional capabilities. And where this has become a major concern for the turmoil fathers, mothers and pregnant women in particular, and rumors abounded and analysis among the community about the occurrence and the appearance of these disabilities.

Based on the foregoing, the present study attempted to (measure of return Social Bertaj program for families of children with Down Mtlama) and identified a problem in the study to answer two questions are important How to achieve social return to Portage program with the families of children with Down Mtlama.

How to achieve Alhaúd Social Bernamajabuartaj with members of the team implementing the families of children with Down Mtlama

Second: The objectives of the study

A major goal (measuring social return to Portage program with the families of children with Down syndrome)

The stems of this goal several sub-goals, namely:

- The achievement of Portage program for the development of social skills to families of children with Down syndrome
The extent to which the program of Portage methods for socialization to the families of children with Down syndrome

The achievement of Portage program for the development of the skill of self-care for families of children with Down syndrome

Determine the extent of the roles performed by the social worker to help families of children with Down syndrome

Determine the extent of the obstacles faced by the Portage achieve the goals of the program with the families of children with Down syndrome

Put a proposal to the role of social service in the reduction of obstacles faced by families of children with Down syndrome

Third, the concepts of the study:

This study consists of four key concepts

1. The concept of social return
2. The concept of the program of Portage (the overall development of early childhood)
3. The concept of the family
4. The concept of children with Down syndrome

Fourth: The methodology used for this study:

1. A comprehensive survey of the social parents of children with Down syndrome benefit from the services of Portage program.
2. a comprehensive survey of the social work team institutions that provide services at the level of program Albortaj facet clamnish facet Freight and Cairo which is represented in 17 institutions and described in the following table
Fifth: study tools of the study

Adopted a researcher in the collection of data on the three main tools, namely: -

1. a measure of the effectiveness of the program of social Portage families and children with Down syndrome, which is applied to the initial things that children with Down syndrome beneficiaries of the program's services.

2. a measure of the efficiency of the work program in Portage (the overall development of early childhood) provided to children with Down syndrome and is applied to the working group for the port program

3. Guide interview with expert practitioners in the program (the overall development of early childhood)

Sixth: the type of study

This study belongs to the pattern of evaluation studies targeting the truth about the effect of partial or total of the program or project of the projects. G Evaluation here means more than just judge the success or failure of the institution in achieving its objectives in terms beyond the limits of the evaluation decision success or failure or quality or mediocrity

The present study was designed to identify the extent of the impact of social return to Portage program with the families of children with Down syndrome through the advancement and improvement of the situation of children or lack of improvement in their condition

Seventh: fields of study

1. spatial domain of the study:

Is in the spatial domain (18 institutions) from the point of Kebly Fayoum, Beni Suef, Minya, and Freight Alexandria, Cairo, Giza has been the application of those associations which are applied Portage program with kids with Down syndrome.
2. Field of human study:

Field consists of the human in this study of parents of children with Down syndrome beneficiaries of Portage Services program (the overall development of early childhood) and the number (71) and they represent a single research community.

3. The time domain:

A period in which the researcher collects scientific material in addition to the period of field application and extended the period from 7/2013 to 1/2014

Eighth: The overall results of the study

• Results of the study confirmed the effectiveness of the program in Portage provision of social services for the development of social skills for children with Down syndrome and self-care skills through the family in general and particularly mothers

• The study found the efficiency of the program team members work with the families of Portage Down Syndrome children and interaction with the family members of the working group for the development of children's social skills