Abstract in English

Fayoum University
Faculty of Social Work

The Role of Social Work in Developing University Youth Awareness of the Importance of Medical Examination Before Marriage
"A study Applied on Fayoum University Students"

Prepared by
Yasser Mohammed Abdullah Reyad

Supervision
P.Dr. / Hoda Tawfiq Sulaiman
S-W Field department- Faculty of Social Work
- Fayoum University

P. D / Ahmed Farouk Mohamed Saleh
S-W Field department- Faculty of Social Work
- Fayoum University
2014
Abstract in English

First, "The problem of the study:
Allah says, " And Allah hath given you wives of your own kind, and hath given you, from your wives, sons and grandsons, and hath made provision of good things for you" (Surat al-Nahl verse 73).

One of the most important concerns of today’s youth is getting married and due to the large and the spread of disease became a marriage contract is associated with a medical examination before marriage for sons healthy and family healthy and happy, and since it is a new procedure on the culture and beliefs of the Egyptian society and the lack of health awareness has, according to statistics, it is applied in most cases but actually completed the procedures in a routine manner, so I tried in this study highlight the role of Social Work in the development of University Youth Awareness of the importance of making this examination and then identified the problem of study to know the role of Social Work in the development of University Youth Awareness of the importance of medical examination before marriage.

Secondly, the concepts of the study:
1. The concept of marriage.
2. The concept of a medical examination before marriage.

Third, the objectives of the study:
The current study aims to " identify the role of Social Work in the Developing University Youth Awareness of the importance of medical examination before marriage.

It is the main objective emerges a group of other sub-goals, namely:
1. Identify the levels of university youth awareness of the importance of pre-marital medical examination.
2. Identify the levels of University Youth Awareness of how the medical examination before marriage.
3. Identify the levels of University Youth Awareness of diseases affecting the marriage.
4. Identify the levels of University Youth Awareness of social institutions responsible for spreading awareness of a medical examination before marriage.

Fourth: the study hypotheses:
This study seeks to test the validity or invalidity of the main hypothesis and several sub-hypotheses:
The main hypothesis:
There may be a statistically significant relationship between the role of Social Work and development of University Youth Awareness of the importance of medical examination before marriage. Can be checked from the main this hypothesis through a combination of the following sub-hypotheses are:

1. There may be a statistically significant relationship between the role of Social Work and the levels of University youth awareness of the importance of pre-marital medical examination.
2. There may be a statistically significant relationship between the role of Social Work and identify the levels of University Youth Awareness of how the medical examination before marriage.
3. There may be a statistically significant relationship between the role of Social Work and to identify the levels of University Youth Awareness of diseases affecting in the marriage.
4. There may be a statistically significant relationship between the role of Social Work and to identify the levels of University Youth Awareness of social institutions responsible for spreading awareness of a medical examination before marriage.

Fifth: the strategic methodology of the study:

Type of study: the experimental method.
Approach used: the experimental method, the researcher has used tribal experience posteriori using one group
Tools of the study:
Data collection tool: It includes:
Scale university youth awareness of the importance of pre-marital medical examination.

Seventh: The areas of study:
- spatial domain: the university city of Fayoum University.
- the human sphere: - the preview window University Youth from the fourth year students at the Faculty of Social Work at the University of Fayoum, and the number (20) students.
- the study sample: intentional sample of University Youth campus in the city of Fayoum University and numbered (20) young men who got less than (60%) to measure the awareness of University Youth after the university applied to university students in the city and who meet the following conditions:
  - To be University Youth.
  - Be of Fayoum University.
  - That gets less on the Richter scale university youth awareness of the importance of pre-marital medical examination.
  - To agree to participate and continue in vocational intervention program.
• the time domain:
The Council represents the time to study the period it took the study since its inception until you finish the period from January 2012 until July 2012.
• Eighth results of the study: The study resulted in
  1. There is a statistically significant relationship between vocational intervention of Social Work and development of University Youth Awareness of the importance of medical examination before marriage.
  2. The presence of a statistically significant relationship between vocational intervention of Social Work and development of University Youth Awareness of how the medical examination befor marriage.
  3. A relationship statistically significant correlation between professional intervention for Social Work and development of University Youth Awareness of diseases affecting in married life.
  4. And a positive relationship with statistical significance between the role of Social Work and development of University Youth Awareness of social institutions responsible for health awareness.