HACCP is an effective tool to ensure the production of safe food, and implementation of HACCP system in hospitality sector is beneficial for many reasons such as good customer’s relations, the mark of professionalism and legal protection, however there are ever increasing burdens to implement HACCP in many hospitality establishments in Egypt.

This exploratory study aimed to achieve many objectives, the first objective was to assess the awareness of the HACCP concept in three different categories of hospitality establishments in Giza and Fayoum governorates in Egypt.