

Question One: Select the suitable answer:

(15 marks)

1. Questions are asked to
(a) specify students' participation. (b) limit students' participation.
(c) measure the students' use of ideas (d) conclude classroom discussions.

2. time is the span of time provided for students between the question and answer.
(a) answer (b) thinking (c) wait (d) response.

3. Managing larger classes is difficult as
(a) the teacher has a chance to apply various techniques.
(b) subdividing the class into smaller groups is possible.
(c) participation levels are always beyond expectation.
(d) maintaining discipline organizing the class wastes time.

4. "Arrange the events of the story" is a/an objective.
(a) knowledge (b) synthesis (c) comprehension (d) analysis

5. Drilling is totally suitable for introducing all of the following except
(a) vocabulary. (b) pronunciation. (c) speaking. (d) grammar.

6. is a suitable warm-up activity.
(a) detailed discussion (b) a question (c) an exercise (d) a complex problem

7. are considered high-tech and are used by many teachers.
(a) projected pictures (b) board drawings (c) charts and maps (d) timelines and scales

8. In using the inductive method of grammar teaching, the focus of the teacher is placed on
(a) form. (b) function. (c) related words. (d) communication.