

The explicit and modified Classical items in the funeral architecture in Madain Saleh

Bulletin of the Archaeological Society of Alexandria

This paper discuss with the Greek and Roman elements in funeral architect of Madain Saleh, which located in Saudi Arabia. This necropolis show the variety between classical and local elements which represented and Triglyph, and the on the facades of the tombs, such as the Metope decorated pediment with classical and local elements. The Greek and roman elements appeared in the tombs plans, and the way of burial.