

Architectural heritage in Darfur and its historical capital Al Fasher

Abstract:

Darfur Region is one of the largest regions in Sudan, after the Islamic conquest, it turned into an independent ring in the chain of the Islamic Kingdoms in Sudan, that locates in the Great Desert of Africa, This paper aims to shed light on the civilizational and architectural heritage of the Region, it also refers to its most well-known Sultans, and their urban projects, and the heritage of the region's capital "AL Fasher, this city as one of the ancient cities in Sudan, this study has concluded to the fact that the architecture of Darfur and Al Fasher is considered a mirror that reflects the true reality of the environmental and civilizational factort of this region, Besides it shows the effect of the political and commercial relationship on it. this study recommends more studies to be done in order to document the heritage areas in the region as a first step to preserve it.