

Cairo University
Fayoum Branch
Faculty of Arabic and Islamic studies
Department of Islamic Sharia

Al Salam and Some of Its applications in the Islamic Banks

Thesis for the degree of M.A

Presented by

Mahmoud Korani Mohamed

Demonstarator in The Department of Islamic sharia
Faculty of Arabic and Islamic Studies

By Supervisers

Prof Dr. Abdel Atif Mohammed Amr

Head of the Department of Islamic Sharia

Dr. Ramadan Al hassanen Goma

Lectuier of Islamic Sharia

Summary

The research is entitled “Al salam and some of its applications in the Islamic Banks”. This research concentrates on studying the activity of Islamic Banks in giving Finance to its clients through selling Al salam. The research deals with the theoretical bases of this process, its practical applications in the Islamic Banks, the problems resulting from it and how to solve these problems.

The research comprises an introduction, a preface, two chapters and a conclusion.

Introduction:

It deals with the reasons behind choosing this topic, its limits and method of research in the preface.

It investigates the causes of establishing the Islamic Banks, its development and the most important processes of investment done by them.

Chapter one is entitled “Al salam in the Fiqh” it deals with the definition of Al salam, its legality, bases and conditions. It also studies the repayment.

Chapter two is entitled “the practical applications of selling Al salam in the Islamic Banks” It studies the experience of Islamic banks in financing through selling Al salam especially the Sudanese banks and Faisal Islamic Bank.

The conclusion shows the findings of the research.