

Abstract

Rhetorical methods in the context of agitation intimidation In prophetic talk (Relationship between men and women as a model)

The research examines the various rhetorical methods of prophetic discourse in the context of agitation and intimidation, especially those relating to the relationship of men and women.

And in the vast area of apocalyptic and intimidating contexts in prophetic speech, what tells us is the accuracy of imagining rhetorical tools and methods that are consistent with those contexts. Precision in selecting what is most effective in wanting or intimidating a Muslim affects the depth of dealings and relationships between men and women.

The research looked at the following :

First: the meaning of vengeance and intimidation.

Second: Speech ers.

thirdly : structures

Fourthly : Graphic Imaging.

Finale, He followed up on the most prominent issues of apocalypse and intimidation in prophetic speech, and then on the most rhetorical methods used in both contexts .

