

A proposed training program from the perspective of general Social work practice to develop university youth's awareness of the requirements of digital social entrepreneurship

Abstract

The current study seeks to achieve a main goal, which is to reach a proposed training program from the perspective of the general practice of social service to develop youth awareness of the requirements of digital social entrepreneurship, through three sub-objectives, which are identifying knowledge related to the requirements of digital social entrepreneurship among university youth from the perspective of the general practice of service. social work, and identifying the trends related to the requirements of digital entrepreneurship among university youth from the perspective of the general practice of social service, identifying the skills related to the requirements of digital social entrepreneurship among university youth from the perspective of the general practice of social service, and trying to come up with a proposed program from the perspective of the general practice of social service to develop awareness Young people meet the requirements of digital social entrepreneurship. The study is considered a descriptive study that relied on the social survey approach through a sample of students from the Faculty of Social Service, Fayoum University. The sample reached (362) individuals from the total study population (6196), and the study reached the most important results, including The study sample of university youth agreed to a moderate degree on the knowledge related to the requirements of digital social entrepreneurship with a total frequency of (9016) and a relative strength of (63.86%), and the study sample of university youth agreed to a moderate degree on the trends related to the requirements of digital social entrepreneurship with a total of frequencies ( 9069) and a relative strength of (64.24%). The study sample of university youth agreed to a moderate degree on the knowledge related to the requirements of digital social entrepreneurship with a total frequency of (8946) and a relative strength of (63.36%). The study arrived at a proposed program from the perspective of general social service practice. To develop youth awareness of the requirements of digital social entrepreneurship

Keywords: training program - requirements - digital social entrepreneurship