

Fayoum University

Faculty of Social Work

Department of Social Work Fields

Research summary

Reality of the professional practice of mobile social work in programs of social protection

Preparation

Dr.Shamya Gamal Sayed Ali

Lecturer, Department of Social Work, at Fayoum University

Research Summary

The professional practice of social work in Egypt is in line with global societal and technological developments regarding the provision of social care services and programs for all groups of society in general and the most vulnerable groups in particular, in light of the directions of the state and Egypt 2030 vision regarding the provision of programs and mobile initiatives that reach these groups in place of Through the mobile units of the Ministry of Social Solidarity, in which the social service profession plays an important and essential role within the various specializations based on implementing the achievement of the objectives of these various units, Accordingly, the present study aimed to analyze the reality of the professional practice of social work within the mobile units in social protection programs (Rapid Intervention - Two Sufficiency - Children and Elderly People Without Water - Relief) using the case study methodology by "describing programs and internal environmental analysis using a Keynesian model - determining the nature Mobile Social work Professional Practice - Identifying challenges facing the professional practice of mobile social work.

The results were as follows: The mobile professional practice aims to improve the quality of life of the most vulnerable groups As for the challenges, the phrase "the community's reluctance to participate positively in reporting cases in need of assistance.

Recommendation: The researcher recommends conducting anthropological studies on professional intervention for the mobile social work.

Key words: Mobile Social work - Social Protection - McKinsey Model for Internal Environmental Analysis.