

level of social security for juvenile delinquents and a proposed role to improve it from the perspective of case work" Applied study of social welfare institutions in Giza"

Abstract

Setting the problem of the study:

Social welfare institutions aim to achieve social security for the juvenile delinquents by providing social, educational, healthy and environmental services to them

Aims of study:

The main aim:

Recognitions the level of social security for juvenile delinquents in social care institutions.

Sub aims:

- Recognitions the level of social services providing by social care institutions for juvenile delinquents.
- Recognitions the level of educational services providing by social care institutions for juvenile delinquents.
- Recognitions the level of healthy services providing by social care institutions for juvenile delinquents.
- Recognitions the level of environmental services providing by social care institutions for juvenile delinquents.

Methodology:

Type of study: descriptive.

The study method: social survey to all the juvenile delinquents in social care institution in Giza.

Study tools :

- Simple observation.
- Individual interviews.
- Questionnaires for the juvenile delinquents

Study fields:

- The human field: The juvenile delinquents in social care institution they numbered 95 child.
- The place field: The juvenile delinquents in social care institution in Giza.
- The time field:

The time field presents in the period of procedure and implementation the study which lasted for (3) months from 11/2020 until 1/2021.

Results of study:

The study results indicated that there is a satisfaction of the sample at the level of services provided to them, as it ranked the highest percentage of health services, followed by educational services then social services, and the lowest percentage of environmental services.