

Abstract

Title: Administrative Transparency as a Variable in achieving Governance in Urban Local Administration Units

Published in: Journal of Social Work Studies - Helwan University vol (56)
October 2021

Prepared by: Dr. Naglaa Ragab Ahmed Elsayed

Department of Development and Planning, Faculty of Social Work, Fayoum University

:Abstract

The current study aimed to determine the reality of administrative transparency as a variable in achieving governance in urban local administration units through its dimensions. The basic represented in information systems, accountability and accounting procedures, the existing communication system, regulations, procedures and work mechanisms in the organization, the participation of employees in making administrative decisions, and the study also aimed to identify the obstacles that limit the benefit from administrative transparency in achieving governance. Achieving governance in urban local administration units is average. The study also found a proposed planning vision to activate the benefit of administrative transparency in its various dimensions in .achieving governance in urban local administration units

:Keywords

Administrative transparency, governance, local administration units