

Suggested visualization for activating the role of civil society institutions in integrating female breadwinners into small projects in order to achieve development

Research Summary;

The aim of the research is to know the role of civil society organizations in integrating women breadwinners into small projects in order to achieve development. This is due to the importance of the role played by civil society organizations in providing health, educational, economic and vocational care to women who are breadwinners in order to achieve the integration and development of society as a whole. Accordingly, a questionnaire was applied to workers in civil society institutions in Fayoum Governorate, entitled "The role of civil society institutions in integrating women breadwinners into small projects in order to achieve development," consisting of three sub-dimensions, namely: The role of civil society institutions in supporting women who are breadwinners professionally - the role of Civil Society Institutions in Supporting Economically Supporting Women - The Role of Civil Society Institutions in Supporting Educationally Supporting Women. And those dimensions consist of (25) phrases.

To achieve the objectives of the study, the researcher used the quantitative and qualitative approach in analyzing and interpreting the results of the research.

Keywords (civil society organizations - women breadwinners - small projects)