

Appreciation the administrative capabilities of employees at the College of Social Work as an input to the quality of educational services
A study applied to workers at the Faculty of Social Work, Fayoum University

Research Summary;

The aim of the research is to estimate the administrative capabilities of the employees of the College of Social Work as an input to the quality of educational services. As the workers have an important and significant role in the success of the educational process, and the worker needs many capabilities and skills that qualify him to work efficiently and effectively, so this research came to determine the most important capabilities that must be available in the workers in the faculties of social work. Accordingly, a questionnaire form was applied to the employees of the Faculty of Social Work, Fayoum University, entitled "Assessment of the administrative capabilities of the employees of the Faculty of Social Work as an input to the quality of educational services," consisting of five sub-dimensions: the relationship between the ability to innovate and the development of administrative capabilities among the employees of the Faculty of Social Work - the relationship between the ability to use technology and the development of administrative capabilities among the employees of the Faculty of Social Work - the relationship between the availability of technical capabilities and the development of administrative capabilities among the employees of the Faculty of Social Work - the relationship between the ability to solve work problems and the development of administrative capabilities among the employees of the Faculty of Service Social - The relationship between the ability to make decisions and the development of administrative capabilities among workers at the College of Social Work. And those dimensions consist of (53) phrases. To achieve the objectives of the study, the researcher used the quantitative and qualitative approach in analyzing and interpreting the results of .the research

Keywords (administrative capabilities - quality of educational services)