

Summary of the Ninth Research

Pit Firing marks the formation of contemporary ceramic forms

The idea of the exhibition is to attempt to benefit from the aesthetics of a special glaze, the Pit Firing, by applying them to contemporary and non-traditional ceramic forms. Most artists who are accused of special coatings prefer to apply them to traditional pottery forms with a ceramic wheel to create aesthetic visions New and contemporary ceramic forms characterized by creativity and innovation.