

Savior of the Twelfth Research

Silk screen with variable barriers as an entrance to enrich ceramic tile surfaces

The researcher went on to use the art of this exhibition to benefit from the silk screen printing with variable barriers, which gives the values of plastic and aesthetic standards and the resulting designs of rhythmic and dynamic to create new aesthetic visions and the production of ceramic tiles characterized by modernity and contemporary.