

Artists and its Benefit in Making Aesthetic Value of Art Nouveau Contemporary wooden works

Dr. Amira Abdallah SudAhmed makled

Wooden Works Lecture – Faculty of Specific Education
Fayoum University

Research Summary:

The research focuses on the Art Nouveau through the investigation of aesthetics in Art Nouveau. The researcher studied the works of the artist "Alfons Maria Mucha" by describing and analysis His artworks made him a group of aesthetic and artistic values essential to the study, and the widespread spread of his artistic and personal work was seen as a symbol of beauty, inspired by his themes of nature with its various elements and its benefit in making contemporary wooden works.

The researcher has drawn a aesthetic and artistic values in the works of Mocha, which can be creative entries that can be received as an innovative design entrance to the contemporary wood crafts committee. This has greatly enriched the woodwork surfaces, enriched the field of woodwork in particular, generally.