

Research Summary

Title research:

Contemporary plastic formulations to achieve functional Ergonomics for wooden box benefit from Islamic decoration

If the functional ergonomics represent the art of design and technical products to achieve the human user with comfort and safety, the wooden work private career which is an important element of the surrounding environment to human beings interact with on a daily basis and continuously, and therefore achieve the highest ergonomics efficiency of these artifacts as tools matched the human body and ensure his comfort, safety and fun and provide him with the effort in the use of the application to the field of career Wooden work priorities.

Accordingly, the idea of research to try to find new premises for the field of wooden working in terms of contemporary style and new thinking and methods of approach in shaping wooden boxes with visions updated in line with the spirit of the times are set them apart from the mechanism and repetition, and try to achieve the principles of functional ergonomics fund formations keep pace with modern requirements and carry with it the authenticity of heritage where processors fine for the fund to take advantage of the Islamic decoration various kinds and various others before.