

Training program to develop designs of wicker products in the Eallam village to meet the needs of the labor market

Research Summary

search title " Training program to develop designs of wicker products in the Eallam village of Photo Collage to meet the needs of the labor market"

The problem of research lies in the following question:

- How can the design of wicker products in the media village be developed to meet the needs of the labor market?

research goals :

- 1 - Take advantage of modern experimental approaches to find contemporary plastic solutions to enrich the usual wickerwork designs in the village .
- 2 - Enable the industrialists and craftsmen in the field of wicker village to invent innovative designs of their own without resorting to designers .

Force search:

- Developing the design of wicker products in the media village can contribute to raising the aesthetic and economic value of it and helps to compete in the labor market.