

Drug abuse prevalence and effects in Coffee shop workers :
A cross sectional study.

The prevalence of drug abuse among coffee shop workers of increasing popular especially tramadol , cannabis and other synthetic drugs, between all age groups in urban and rural area ,these drugs of abuse can be detected using dip stick , TLC and the most specific method of detection using GC-MS to confirm the results. Countries should plan for facing this cancer due to its bad hazardous and consequences on health , family and society .

جهة وتاريخ النشر:

Indian journal of forensic medicine and toxicology Volume (15) issue (4),october-2021.