

Archeological study of metal object

Abstract

A metal object was found in the museum of Islamic art in Bamberg (in Germany) . the object registered number (5549) ,its shape is different from the other objects of metal work

.the topic of the current study was assumed to highlight ,use and date of the metal object .

The result indicated that the metal object was used as an amult and it dates back to the 19th century