

The False Door of Shepsi at the Egyptian Museum of Cairo

Abstract:

Publication of a limestone false door from Saqqara on display in the Egyptian Museum of Cairo (JE 68923). The false door was commissioned by a man named Shepsi (Spsi) and can be dated, on the titles, and costumes, to the fifth Dynasty.