

Research paper data published in English

Research Title	Christian Religious festivals (Mawlids) and its role in promoting tourism in the Region of Middle Egypt
Researcher Data Name –University – Department – Email - Country	Wahid Attia Mohamed Omran, Lecturer of Graeco- Roman Archaeology, Guidance Dep. Faculty of Tourism and Hotels, Fayoum University. Waheed_tourism@yahoo.com Wao00@fayoum.edu.eg
Abstract	There are many Christian religious festivals being held in the region of Middle Egypt, however these religious events do not received the appropriate attention from the officials as a tourism attraction for marketing. The research will lead to touristic development in Middle Egypt by involving the Ministry of Tourism to develop the religious area by adding touristic facilities such as visiting centers, motels, Toilets and shopping center for local and foreign visitors.
Keywords	Mawalid, Christian, Tourism, Marketing, Monasteries
Published by / Journal Name	http://www.atiner.gr/docs/Publication_Policy.htm
Publishing Date	After June 2013